

Shepherd Notes

I'm getting a head start on my Thanksgiving list for this year. First of all, thank you all for your kindness and generosity. Your big hearts and generous spirit have been a huge blessing to many. Thank you for serving. NLCC couldn't function without all our wonderful volunteers. Thank you for sticking with the church during difficult times. It's an honor to walk with you. Thank you for inviting your friends and family. This is how we grow! Lastly, Thank you for letting me be who I am. I may not be the popular trendy pastor but I sure do love you all. Thank you, thank you, thank you! Always pulling for you, Pastor Luis

Based on today's message how would you answer the following questions? Read 1 Thessalonians 5:18 and let these questions help to spark the spirit of Thanksgiving!

1. What teacher/mentor are you most thankful for and why? What did you learn from him/her?
2. What act of kindness has made the greatest difference in your life?
3. What's the season you're most thankful for, and what's your favorite part of each season?
4. What electronic device are you most grateful for, and what does it add to your life?
5. What musician or type of music are you most thankful for?
6. What are you most grateful for that brings beauty to your daily life?
