

Shepherd Notes

As Christians, we all know that we are supposed to share our faith. Unfortunately, doing so in today's social and political climate is an intimidating and often frightening proposition. Our goal this year is to help you understand the Christian faith so that you can make it your own. I'd like to help you learn to articulate, to share, and proclaim your faith so that others might be persuaded to join us. Let's ask the tough questions together and let the Holy Spirit lead us into truth.

Always pulling for you,
Pastor Luis

Based on today's message how would you answer the following questions?

1. Read Romans 7:15-20 how does this verse support the claim that conditioning, desires and the need for community are the greatest factors in how we see and accept truth?
2. What evidence or argument do you accept as convincing for the existence of God?
3. Pastor Luis stated that too many Christians still have Crayola Christianity. How has this affected our ability to share our faith? What can we do to improve our situation?
4. Has there ever been a time when God didn't respond to your circumstances the way you wanted or expected? If so, what did that experience do to your faith?
5. Why is it sometimes difficult to believe God works out things for good in a world of sin and suffering?
