

Shepherd Notes

There is a common belief today that “all roads lead to God.” People claim that it is arrogant to say that Jesus is the only way. While it is noble to respect each other’s religious faith, we should never agree to all points of view just for the sake of tolerance. Everyone is entitled to their opinion but opinions do not make truth. The Jesus of the Bible is the one qualified mediator, the only qualified sacrifice and the only qualified Savior. I really hope that today’s message reawakens your passion for Jesus. Always pulling for you. Pastor Luis

Based on today’s message how would you answer the following questions?

1. Most everything in Western culture is set up to avoid conflict and disagreement. Can you think of any examples? Why is this becoming the norm? What are the consequences of avoiding disagreements at any price? 2.
2. Western culture seems to pit love and truth against one another. What makes Christianity unique in its ability to bring them together? Why is it so important that we have both? 3.
3. What is the law of non-contradiction? How does religious pluralism violate this law? Give some examples. 4.
4. Read John 1:18. What makes Jesus unique amongst all religious leaders in history? What did God make a priority that we know about Him? 5.
5. What have you learned from this sermon series that has made an impact in your thinking, attitude or decision making? What has God taught you that you are grateful for?
